The regular session of the County Commissioners begins on the 5th of next month.

The advertisement of the Teacher's Institute, as published heretofore in this paper, contained a mistake. Instead of the term being only of two weeks' duration, it should have said four weeks.

A voter, a Republican, was asked the other day if he would not run as a Republican candidate for Councilman. "No," he replied, "I think too much of myself to run as the candidate of any party against Mr. Trease, whom the people here or there, as it is now, such is the feeling of all right-minded men of all parties, and it is questionable if the Beesites will be able to get a respectable man to come out as their candidate."

The Court of Common Pleas, for this County, convenes again on the 5th of next month. Five criminal cases and seventy-one civil cases are docketed for hearing. The Court will last about two weeks and a portion of the time will be presided over by Judge Moses M. Granger. However, Judge F. W. Wood will preside during most of the session.

The Beesites are having a hard time of it, in their attempt to get a respectable man to run on their ticket for Councilman. Respectable men think it about as respectable to run for Councilman, with the avowed purpose of repealing the "Beer Ordinance," as it would be to stand behind the counter and retail Beer.

There are those in this community that are charging that the present dull times are all on account of the "Beer Ordinance." In other words, they say that our farmers won't come to town because they cannot buy Beer. Certainly these Beesites have a high idea of the farmers of Morgan County! Think of it, farmers! They would make it appear that you are great Beer and Whisky guzzlers!

The County Commissioners met on Tuesday last as a Board of Equalization of the Personal Property of the County, but owing to the fact that Caleb A. Williams, Assessor of Marion Township, was not up to time with his official business, they adjourned, without accomplishing anything, to meet again as said Board on the 5th day of next month.

Wm. C. Trease has introduced some new styles of Photographs in this community, which are worthy of any one's inspection. They are the Rembrandt, Holyoke, Berlin, and also the Life Size Photographs. These are much superior to the old style of Photographs, and evidence Mr. Trease's determination to keep posted in all new discoveries of his calling. Call at his rooms on Centre street, above the Public Square, and inspect his work, and thereby satisfy yourself as to the merits of these Photos.

Fox Express and Farm Wagons, manufactured of good, seasoned material, finely finished, call on Lukens & Strong, above the Bridge, McConneville, Ohio. They have on hand a fine lot of Farm Wagons, Four-Spring, Platform Spring, and Two Spring Express Wagons, which can be bought at Cash rates. Repairing, repainting, and all kinds of Blacksmith Work done mechanically by them. Give them a call! They are prompt.

May 19, 1871-4w.

The contractors for building the contemplated Baptist Church building, have begun operations—such as hauling the stone for the foundation, &c. The main Church building has been contracted for for seven thousand dollars, and the Sabbath School and Lecture building for eight hundred dollars. The probability is, however, that the two buildings will cost all of nine thousand dollars. Isaac Potts, G. B. Potts and J. B. Powell are the contractors. The Baptists and those connected with the Baptists by relationship, have subscribed about six thousand dollars toward this work, and the Church will be able to raise considerably more within its folds. Our citizens generally will be called upon soon to contribute their individual mites, and it is hoped that they will respond liberally. The buildings will be highly creditable to the town, to say nothing of the purpose for which they are to be used.

Rev. Wm. H. Wolf, of the M. E. Church, died at his residence near Grove City, eight miles west of Columbus, Ohio, of consumption, on Tuesday night, the 13th inst., aged thirty-five years. Mr. Wolf's first charge was at Rossau, this county, and his next in Malta, his next at Amesville, Athens county, his next at Grove City above mentioned, his next at Midway, Madison county, and his next and last at Milford Centre, Union county, which calling health caused him to give up and return to his home near Grove City, a little over one year ago. In the Fall of 1862, he married Miss Mary E. Hall, the eldest daughter of John Hall, of Malta. He leaves his widow and four small children very comfortably situated. Mr. Wolf was a young man of more than ordinary promise, and had his physical constitution been equal to his will and mental and spiritual ability, his life would have been one of prolonged usefulness.

The New Lexington Herald, of the 19th, comes to us asking us to exchange, and evidencing its need of a missionary of some kind that would furnish it with a copy of the National Prohibition Platform.

The Herald is a very neatly printed Democratic paper, and is the organ of the dominant party of Perry County, and is evidently troubled at the prospective growth of a Prohibition party in Perry County, having probably similar feelings to those harbored by our McConneville Herald at seeing the Prohibition party prosper in Morgan County. But the Herald, like the Lexington one we mean, essays to stop the growth of the Prohibition cause in Perry County by a timely nip at the bud, and in doing so, spends almost a column of its most valuable space in telling the Prohibitionists not to begin at the branches of the great tree of destruction, but to commence at the root; or, in other words, not to trouble themselves by trying to force Democratic officials to enforce the present laws, but to strike out boldly for laws that would make it equally as criminal to sell or bring into the State any kind of alcoholic liquors as it is to steal horses or pass counterfeit money. The Herald, (the New Lexington one), has no hesitancy in saying it is just as bad to degrade, rob and kill a man by selling him liquor as it is to steal horses, commit burglary, or what our laws now stamp as murder, and it wants the Prohibitionists to stop their endeavors to have the present laws enforced, and devote their entire attention to the work of having laws made that will place those who sell liquor in their proper sphere in the catalogue of criminals. We do not know what the Prohibitionists of Perry County are doing further than we can guess by the complaints of the Herald, but we would assure the editors of that paper that if they will examine the Platform of the National Prohibition party, found on the first column of the second page of this paper, and on which the Prohibitionists of Ohio are fighting, they will find that the Prohibitionists are fighting for the entire prohibition of the sale, manufacture or importation of all alcoholic stimulants as a beverage. While we are at work at the root, though, we think it well enough to put in what spare time we have by lopping off some of the branches, all that we are able to lop off with the hatchet the people of Ohio have given us. If by this means we can stop the growth of the monster even a little, we will be doing much good. The Herald's cry of "begin at the root and we are with you," was in the month of every liquor vendor in McConneville three years ago, but they failed to be with us, forgot their promises when we presented them the Prohibition Platform beginning at the root. Will the Herald go back on its promise? Read the Platform and answer.

Wm. C. Trease for Councilman.

The following correspondence explains itself:
MCCONNELSVILLE, O., May 17th, 1871.
MR. Wm. TREASE—Dear Sir:—The undersigned citizens and electors, irrespective of party, respectfully request you to be a candidate for the office of Councilman, to fill the vacancy caused by the resignation of John Ewing, understanding that you are in favor of maintaining the Ordinance known as the "Beer Ordinance," without alteration or modification.
Wm. McCARTY,
JOSEPH A. KELLY,
JAMES B. MCGREW,
ARZA ALDERMAN,
R. STANTON,
PATRICK SWEENEY,
JAMES MAIN,
GEORGE CAMPBELL,
and others.

MCCONNELSVILLE, O., May 18th, 1871.
Messrs W. W. McCARTY, and others—Gentlemen: In answer to your communication of the 17th, permit me to say that I am thankful for the confidence manifested in your letter, and that I accept the candidacy tendered me upon the terms therein indicated.
WM. C. TREASE.

ALL who aspire to become School Teachers in Morgan county should not fail to attend the Teachers' Normal Institute to be held in McConneville, as advertised elsewhere in this paper. For a year or more past, a great many who want to teach have thought the examinations by the Morgan County Board of Examiners too severe, when the fault has been that they were unfitted for the positions they seek. The object of this Institute is to smooth the way for all such to come up to the standard that the Board rightfully requires. Arrangements will be made for all to obtain boarding at reasonable rates, and it is hoped none will fail to attend.

Annual Meeting of the Morgan Co. Medical Society.
Notice is hereby given that the Annual Meeting for 1871, of the Morgan County Medical Society will be held on TUESDAY, MAY 30th, at the office of Dr. Chas. Robertson, in McConneville. It is hoped there will be a full attendance.
May 19, 1871.—2w.

DEVINT-HAYS—By W. C. Early, J. P., on May 17th, 1871, at the residence of Abraham Hays, in Centre tp., Mr. John Devint to Miss Jane Hays, both of Morgan county. O. Leland—Jenkins—On Wednesday, the 24th inst., at the residence of O. M. Lovell, Esq., by Rev. C. W. Courtright, Mr. J. A. C. Leland to Miss Sarah Jenkins, both of Bristol township, this county.
FRENCH—CHEADLE—May 24th, '71, by Rev. H. Cooper, at the residence of Mrs. Nancy Cheadle, Mr. George French and Miss Agnes A. Cheadle, both of McConneville.

ICE!—Al. Worley will accommodate all who desire ice brought to their doors at reasonable rates. He makes a circuit of the town in this business four times a week. His ice is probably the best that was put up here last winter.

BEESWAX—In this paper will be found V. B. Lewis & Co.'s advertisement, to which we call special attention. This firm is one of the live establishments of Zanesville, and is receiving a heavy patronage from the people of the Maskingum Valley. They state in their advertisement that they are ready to make it interesting to a live man, either in McConneville or Malta, to take hold of the Canton Backey Mower & Reaper, for which they are the General Agents for the Maskingum Valley. Here is a chance for some enterprising man to build up a lucrative business. V. B. Lewis & Co. are general dealers in Hardware, Farm Implements, Seeds, &c., and parties who go to Zanesville to trade, cannot do better than to call on them.

ONE of the electroneering stories being circulated now is to the effect that a certain person who owns considerable real estate in McConneville will not give anything toward building a railroad unless the "Beer Ordinance" is repealed. He then, the story goes, will rent his buildings for beer-shops and give the rents toward building a railroad. Is not this generous! Here is a man that wants to build a railroad out of the wages of the laboring men; off the woes and wails of wives, widows and orphans; off the moral, mental, physical, financial, and spiritual ruin of his fellow-men; and then he wants to have it to tell that he gave so much toward building a railroad, so much, thus got! It strikes us that if any of our citizens want to build a railroad out of the money they would spend for Beer if the Ordinance was repealed, it would be far better for them to save their dimes and half-pennies themselves, and apply them to the building of a road themselves, instead of making a Beer Saloon a half-way house for them.

THE NEW DEPARTURE—We publish this week the resolutions, prepared by C. L. Vallandigham, and passed unanimously by the Montgomery County Convention in Dayton, and, as the probability is that they will be accepted as the platform of the Democratic Convention, Ohio, at the coming State Convention, to be held in Columbus on the 1st day of June, we may say they are of peculiar significance to the whole country. Heretofore, Mr. Vallandigham, and the Montgomery County Democracy, have been the most ultra in their party holdings and demands; and, now that they have made a complete surrender, have ceased to clamor for a "White Man's Government," have abandoned the idea that one or more States of our Union can have the right to secede, have repudiated the "Greenback" policy and are urging a speedy return to specie payment; in short, have swallowed the late war and all its political results, negro suffrage included, and have come squarely onto the Republican platform of two years ago—under such circumstances, it is strange that there should be considerable commotion? But strange as it is that Mr. Vallandigham and his friends should make such a wholesale surrender of what they claimed, a few years ago, to be their over-enduring principles, yet it is equally strange that the Democratic papers and leaders of Ohio should fall in with them in their new ideas so readily. The Ohio Statesman, of Columbus, recognizes the situation at once, and comes out boldly to the Dayton Platform. It goes so far in its views as to hold that if the Supreme Court of the United States was thoroughly Democratic, that said Court would sustain the three last amendments to the United States Constitution as the law of the land, notwithstanding that it might be proven that they were illegally enacted. The Cincinnati Enquirer endorses the Dayton Platform also, if we except its disposition to stick to "Greenback" plan of paying the National debt. On this point it hesitates a little about following in the wake of Mr. Vallandigham, and will doubtless wriggle and writhe considerably before it succumbs to the pressure that will finally force it to capitulate. Leading Democrats in this community, we mean those who would never forsake the party no matter how often it forsakes them, are tacing the platform one section at a time, and it is thought they will get it all down by the 1st of June. This action of the Democracy cannot but result in good to the Prohibition cause. It has brought the two old parties so nearly together that there is little or no difference in them except in the name, and they will stand before the people only as two armies of vampires fighting for the possession of the victim whose blood they would suck. This will force the great body of our citizens to look around for a party that has a principle to carry out effect, and they will be naturally attracted by the cause of Prohibition.

THE BEESITES have a plan on foot to deceive the people, to-wit: Instead of endeavoring to make the sale of Beer free, they are about to propose to repeal the present Ordinance and enact another one allowing the sale under certain restrictions, for instance that it shall not be sold to minors, habitual drunkards, or on Sundays, or after ten o'clock at night, &c. This is a very clever dodge, and will be fraught with all the evils resulting from the free sale of the poison, and will be attended with the additional evil of continual lawsuits, &c. As the Ordinance now stands, there is little prospect of our community being harassed with prosecutions for the reason that no one will deal in the article when he cannot make it profitable but by subjecting himself to the penalties of the Ordinance. Under such an Ordinance as the Beesites propose, lawsuits and prosecutions would spring up on every hand. The Vendors would violate the Ordinance every day, taking the chances that they could not be convicted. Knowing that it is a very difficult matter to convict a violator under such an Ordinance. Besides this, is it the wish of any respectable man that his neighbor, a sober man to-day, should be made a drunkard of to-morrow? Such would be the result of such an Ordinance as the Beesites propose.

Cincinnati Live Stock Market.
Cincinnati, Eve. of May 22.
BEEF CATTLE—There was a fair demand all the week from butchers and shippers. We quote common $3 75-4 25; fair $4 50-5; good at $5 25-5 50; prime butchers' stock $5 75, and shipping cattle, $5 per cental gross.

SHEEP—Receipts fell off towards the close of the week, and to-day the market was firm at $3 to $5 per cental gross for common to prime. Lambs are selling at $1 50 to $3 per head, as to quality.

HOGS—The supply the greater portion of the week was in excess of the wants of the butchers, and a material decline was established, but to-day shippers entered the market and took about all offered, the market closing firm at $4-4 50 per cental gross, for light to heavy averages.

COE'S PATENT

UPRIGHT
DRILL PRESS & SCREW CUTTING MACHINE!

PATENTED January 19th, 1869.

THESE DRILLS are indispensable to Blacksmiths, Carriage, Wagon and Plow Manufacturers. Every establishment that purchases one, finds the many conveniences to which it can be put, would not be without it for three times its price. No. 1 is without vice attachment and suitable for ordinary Blacksmith work—Weight 100 pounds. No. 2 suitable for Carriage, Wagon, and ordinary Blacksmith work and for drilling any hole up to one inch—Weight 130 pounds. No. 3 with vice attachment, is suitable for all kinds of light and heavy work, such as cutting Bolts and Nuts up to three-fourths of an inch. This size is most generally used by PLOW MAKERS—Weight 200 pounds.

At the same time is perfectly simple, strong and not liable to get out of order. If desired the No. 2 Machine can be run by power, by putting a Pulley on the Shaft near the Balance Wheel. This is one of the greatest Labor Saving Machines for Blacksmiths in use. No Smith can afford to be without one. They are gotten up in the first-class styles, AND ARE
